Dinner

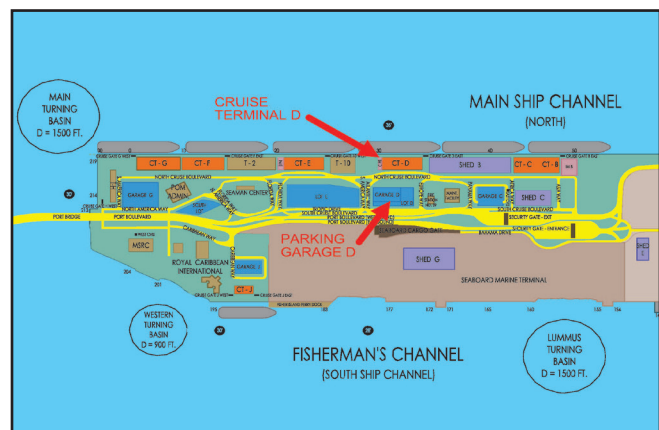

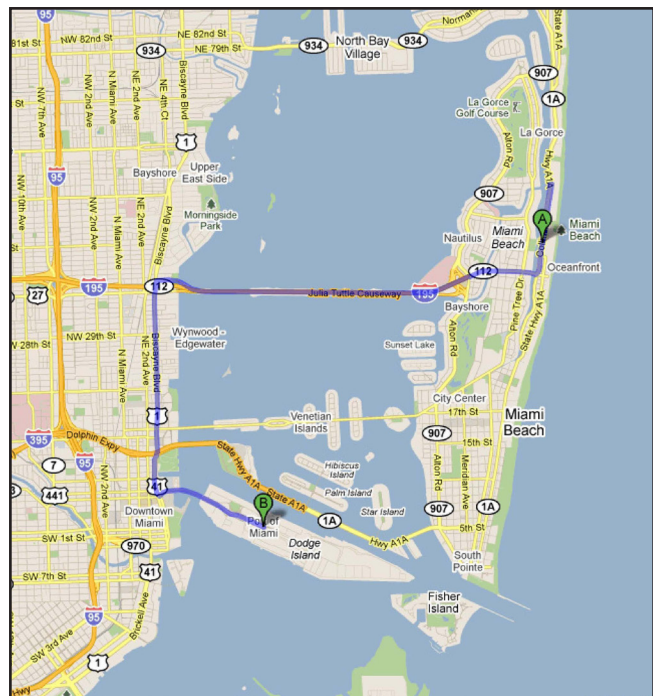

Make plans to arrive for the Annual FES Meeting on Wednesday afternoon and join your FES, FICE, FELI and FEF friends for a Miami dinner and libations in a casual setting.

The Annual FEF Informal Dinner will be at the Port of Miami in the Carnival Cruise Lines Terminal D hosted by the FEF Board of Trustees and Port Director Bill Johnson.

After a relaxed 20 minute drive across Julia Tuttle Causeway and down Biscayne Boulevard in downtown Miami, you will be immersed in the tropics with a classic Cuban-Miami dinner consisting of Lechon Asado (Roast Pork), Arroz Blanco y Frijoles Negro (White Rice and Black beans), Yuca con Mojo, Maduros (Sweet Plantains) and Flan. Beer, wine, cocktails, and soft drinks will be provided.

Parking is free of charge in Garage D, south of the terminal. Directional signs will guide you from the Port entrance. You and your guests will need to present your driver's license at security to gain admittance.

Please provide a name, date of birth and license number for yourself and your guests when you register for the dinner. Alternatively, please email the information to Shawn Stewart at shawn@fleng.org. This information will be used only to check your ID against the guest list FEF will provide to the Port.
